From the Manse

Dear Friends,

Well, after my three month sabbatical, I've now been back for two months, and in some ways it's as if I was never away! First of all, although I've said it in other places, a huge thank you to all who held the fort while I was away. To the Stewards and Elders (Gwen and Pat in particular), to our retired ministers who did some visiting and took some funerals, to Jan T who wrote THIS piece for the magazine, and to everyone else who stepped up and stepped in. Thank you!

Although I thoroughly enjoyed my sabbatical, it was not difficult to come back. I missed you all. But it was good to have the opportunity to spend more time with family and friends, to marry my nephew and his fiancé in Tenerife, to go on a retreat and also an excellent course about conflict resolution.

The quieter summer has been a good time to return and to begin to gear up for a busy Autumn. We have our Church Meeting on 7th September – I hope you will be there; our Faith and Fellowship sessions for the autumn start in October.

Also in September my Circuit responsibilities will change slightly. Instead of having pastoral charge of Penlan (as well as UCS and part-time chaplaincy at the university), I will now have pastoral charge of Clydach Methodist Church. They are a small but friendly bunch, who worship in the hall of Capel y Nant. I am looking forward to a new challenge.

While I was on sabbatical we celebrated our first birthday as Uniting Church Sketty. Now, as we enter our second year together, the time is right to consider more deliberately what our purpose is together and the buildings we need to fulfil this purpose. I look forward to working with you as we prayerfully discern the way ahead.

With love, Leslie

THE URC BIG DAY OUT ON SATURDAY, 2nd JULY

Those of you who attended the annual church meeting will remember that we discussed what we would put in the yellow bag that we were asked to fill with items that characterise our church. All the bags that were taken to Builth Wells on July 2nd were exchanged for a bag from another church. This is what we put inside our bag (thanks to those who provided items):

1. A set of notelets depicting The Journey with God told in flowers
2. One of the friendship bracelets shared in the family service
3. A copy of our welcome leaflet
4. A recent Church Magazine
5. Photos of church activities, including last year's pantomime DVD
6. One of the Palm Crosses we distributed this Easter
7. Book marks with the names of both former churches
8. A bar of Fairtrade chocolate (Please share and enjoy it!)

We received from Rhos on Sea URC Colwyn Bay:

1. A paper frieze made by children
2. A Church Magazine
3. A book entitled Thoughts to make your Heart Sing
4. The URC prayer Handbook for 2010
5. Leaflets about different activities organised at the church, which included a leaflet about Colwyn Bay Town Centre Chaplaincy
6. A pencil box decorated by a child.

We were asked to pray for the members of the church. The Yellow bag will be available to see at the next coffee morning.

COMMUNION COLLECTIONS IN SEPTEMBER

Our September collections will be for Action for Children. This national charity supports a wide range of projects to support children and young people including help for children in care, disabled children and support for young families.

Susan G

ZAMBUKO RA JEHOVAH

As you may know, we are supporting this charity for two years rather than our usual one. This is because we feel that this charity is an unusual case in being completely dependent on our support locally, it has no backing from bigger charities. The Coventry churches which were supporting Rev Siperire Mugatzwe in the project, have now handed it on to this circuit and thirty AIDs orphans need our help to provide them with food, clothing and education. Although people may feel ready for a change, the purpose of our giving is to make a difference and this is a chance to make a big difference to those children.

Siperire visits Zimbabwe to make sure the money supports the children. Zimbabwe was once a relatively wealthy country, but political and social turmoil have turned it into one of the poorest in Africa. It also has a reputation for corruption and is not an easy environment for charities to operate in, so any chance to help directly really should not be missed. So far this year, we have raised £2,426.79. This is made up of the sponsored walk which raised £1607.15, Abbey Players Concert which raised £168.20, the Hunger lunch that raised £357.10, the Coffee morning and book sale that raised £248, and out July communion offerings of £346.34.

There will be a circuit mission service at Penlan on the 9th October, with a chance to learn more about the difficult situation in Zimbabwe. The Mission and Outreach team is committed to supporting both Methodist and URC causes, you may remember that our first project as UCS was Commitment for Life. In due course we will be considering our next project.

WESLEY CLUB

Remembering Enid P:

As well as being a supportive and encouraging friend to us all, Enid had been Wesley Club secretary on several previous occasions and was so for the last three years. Despite her poor health, she continued finding, inviting and confirming speakers. It is thanks to her that we have had such a full, varied, interesting and enjoyable programme. A letter of thanks was sent to her in hospital at the time. We will miss her in so many ways.

Wesley Club Officers:

Wesley Club AGM was held on 27th June 2016 and the following officers were elected.

Chair	Jan C, Linda J, Pam T
Secretary	Lynne W
Assistant secretary	Pauline L
Treasurer	Rosemary B
Assistant treasurer	Jane E
Outings	Jane E
Books	Beryl R and Pat G
Registrar	Esme K
Cards	Esme K
Refreshments	Myrna C & Esme K
Representative of Women in Britain	Janet N

We will start again on Monday, 5th September at 7 pm with a social evening and would like to invite any ladies to join us.

Lynne W

AN EVENING WITH KEVIN JOHNS

This will be held at 7pm, on Thursday, 8th September at Morriston Methodist Church. Tickets are £5.00 each and are obtainable at the door. Proceeds for Morriston Methodist Church funds.

EVENING SERVICE AT PENLAN ON SUNDAY 11thSEPTEMBER

The congregation at Penlan has been small and struggling for some years. The Circuit is reluctant to abandon its presence in Penlan, and is therefore looking for new ways to be church on that estate. Whilst the congregation now worship with Wesley Eaton Road on Sunday mornings, for the time being there will be an evening service at Penlan once a month. This is an opportunity to do something a bit different as prayers and explorations continue. In order to support this effort, on Sunday, 11thSeptember there will be no evening service at Sketty. Instead all are encouraged to join with others at Penlan at 6.30pm.

CHURCH WEEKEND AWAY – OR NO CHURCH WEEKEND AWAY?

We have a provisional booking for a church weekend away to Lindors Friday 31 March to 2 April 2017 – however, at the moment, only a very small number of people have signed the list to indicate they would like to go. So PLEASE, if you want to go, do sign the list in the Vestibule.

The cost will be £152 per adult for the weekend, based on a full board basis. The cost for children and young people in full time education will be on a sliding discounted rate according to age. A non-refundable deposit of £30 will be due at the end of September 2016; final balance will be due first week in February 2017. For more information regarding the cost, venue and format of the weekend, contact me.

Faith & Fellowship

Autumn Faith and Fellowship

Faith, Hope and Love

Tuesdays from 10am-11.30am:

4th October, 18th October, 25th October

Thursdays from 7.30pm to 9pm:

13th October, 27th October, 3rd November

A chance to explore these ‘theological virtues’ (as they are sometimes called). What does the Bible say about them? What do they mean for us today? And (in a consumer society), is there a way to get more of them?

If you’ve never been to a bible study before – or never come along to Faith and Fellowship, why not give it a try? There really is no qualification needed. You don’t need to know your bible. You don’t need to have all the answers. You simply need to want to explore your faith with others. We have a cup of tea, we talk together, we learn together, we laugh together. Sometimes we gain insights that stay with us. We’d love to see you – we really would!

YOUNG WIVES REUNION

Jean and Chris G will be in Swansea around the end of August and we have arranged to meet Jean over coffee in the Wesley Room at 10:30am on 1st September. Past members of the "Young Wives" are very welcome to join us, Claire and Pauline.

Claire S

THURSDAY CIRCLE

The first meeting of the Autumn session of the Thursday Circle will take place at Bethel Hall on Thursday, September 1st at 2.30pm. We look forward to welcoming our guest speaker, who has yet to be arranged; due to a last minute rearrangement, life is full of surprises! As usual a warm welcome awaits all who wish to join us.

Pat B D

FOLK DANCING ON MONDAY AFTERNOONS

Folk Dancing has had a well earned break and will resume classes on Monday 5th September at 2pm in Bethel Hall. We extend a warm welcome to any new members who would like to join us. No experience is necessary and you don't need to bring a partner! Dancing is good for you, so why not come and join us – we'd love to see you!!

Rosemary B

LADIES' KEEP FIT

We are starting our classes again on Tuesday, 6th September, so come and join us again on Tuesdays at 10 to 11am in Bethel Church Hall. We do gentle standing and floor exercises, so please bring a mat and a sense of humour. The exercises are suitable for all ages and it just costs £2 per session. New members always welcome. For further details talk to me.

Maisie H

CRAFT GROUP

We will meet in the Wesley Room every Tuesday, from 2pm to 4pm during term time. We look forward to seeing everyone and extend a warm welcome to any newcomers.

Kath D

MUSIC FOR MUSCLES

On Friday 16th September at 7.30pm there will be a concert at Uniting Church Sketty, given by Morriston Ladies' Choir to raise funds for Muscular Dystrophy. The choir will be supported by two talented cellists – Catrin Johnson and Stefan Ortega-Davies. Tickets are £5 and can be purchased from Janet N, or on the evening.

Janet N

FELLOWSHIP DAY

There will be a Fellowship Day, for all women in this church and the Swansea and Gower Circuit at Reynoldston Methodist Church on Thursday 22nd September. The theme is "THE CHRIST WE SHARE". Tea and coffee will be served from 10am and the day will start at 10.30 and finish about 4pm with communion. There will be a bring and share lunch. There will be no set charge, though donations will be welcome to cover expenses. Contact Janet N for further details and a registration form. Lifts can be arranged.

Janet N

MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING

How quickly time passes, as another year has gone by and we are looking forward to our Macmillan Coffee Morning on Friday 23rd September. It will be held in our Wesley Room from 10am-12 noon. Everyone is welcome so why not bring your friends and family and come and join us and help support this worthy cause. There will also be a Bring and Buy stall to help raise some extra money!

Rosemary B

COVER TO COVER

May I begin by thanking Pat D who led us in an excellent discussion of 'Lila' in our June meeting. Due to holidays and other commitments, our next meeting will be on Thursday, October 6th at 10:30, when we will be looking at The Garden of Evening Mists by Tan Twan Eng.

Mike W

REEL TO REAL

The summer is now over and it's time to renew our acquaintance with the celluloid world! This month we will be watching "Unbroken" - a true story of Louis Zamperini, who as a boy had been a cunning and incorrigible delinquent, breaking into houses, brawling, and fleeing his home to ride the rails. As a teenager, he had channelled his defiance into running, discovering a prodigious talent that had carried him to the 1936 Berlin Olympics and within sight of the four-minute mile. But when war had come, the athlete had become an airman, embarking on a journey that led to his doomed flight, a tiny raft, and a drift into the unknown. He is caught by the Japanese Navy and sent to a prisoner-of war camp. This is an unbelievable and inspiring true story, about the resilient power of the human spirit.

The films will be circulating in September with reviews the first week in October, dates to be arranged. If anyone not on my lists would like to join us, you will be very welcome. Please contact me

Sandra C

TRAI DCRAFT

Exciting new stock in September, so please come and buy. If anyone else would like to help out, please let us know. If you have any queries, please talk to

Jackie & Gary C

CHOICES, CHOICES

What a quandary. A choice had to be made. It was a toss up between Wimbledon to watch matches on Centre Court, OR, attend an evening reception at St. James Palace, to meet the Duke of Edinburgh. A quandary. Why? Both events were on the same day! As it happened, the decision was easy to make. A friend of mine had been allocated Wimbledon tickets, but was suffering from sciatica, couldn't sit for long and the tickets were not transferable. So that was that, I would attend the ceremony at St. James Palace. I was invited to meet the Duke of Edinburgh, because he has been Patron of Muscular Dystrophy UK for 50 years. I have only been actively involved with the charity for about 15 years, so I counted myself lucky to have been invited, together with the chairman and vice chairman of our branch.

When the invitation arrived, it was accompanied by many instructions, including, "no cameras allowed"! The dress code was cocktail dresses for ladies. That was the first problem as I didn't have a dress, because most types are too difficult for me to get on and off. Fortunately, by looking online, I found a suitable and reasonably priced dress. Then I was bombarded by people asking me what jewellery I was going to wear – what a palaver! But that was easy to narrow down as it had to be something I could take on and off myself, so I decided upon a pendant with a magnetic clasp. All those attending were divided into small groups. The Welsh contingent was all together. I had read earlier that day, that the Duke and Queen were due at Westminster Abbey at 7.30 in the evening, to take part in the prayer vigil to remember the Battle of the Somme. So, sadly I thought that the Duke might not attend our reception. However, at exactly 6pm, he entered the room. Wow, I didn't realise he was so short, about my height. He must have shrunk over the years, after all he is 95. Walking alongside the Queen he appears taller, because she is so short. He spoke to everyone in each group and asked me where I came from. Two speeches followed. The Duke gave his without any notes; he doesn't wear spectacles, so perhaps he has contact lenses. I also noticed that he had two hearing aids. After the speeches, the Duke chatted to people again. Then I realised there were guests gathering at the end of the room where I was standing. Why? I looked around. There was Alex Ferguson and a lady whom I did not recognise. Who was she? It was Mary Peters, the long jumper; you have to be a certain age to remember her! Also circulating was Christine Hamilton, wife of Neil; she was pleasant and got down on the floor to speak to wheelchair users, keeping eye contact with all. At 7pm sharp, the Duke left. This must have given him just enough time to change his tie, go to the loo, get in the car and be whisked to the Abbey. I really admire his energy levels and commitment and also those of the Queen.

The following day I looked at all the photos taken, downloaded the ones I wanted to print and put two on Facebook. Then I re-read the email from Head Office, which said that no photos were to be shared on social media! So that's why you haven't seen me lately, as I had to do a spell, under guard, in the Tower!

Janet N

LAST CALL

I trust that most of you have seen the weekly notices for our next PANTOMIME. I have purposely not approached anyone, as this year I am wanting everyone involved to volunteer themselves. However, I am now at the stage where I have a rough draft, not yet all on paper I should say, and so this is the last call/appeal/warning, call it what you will, for anyone interested to give me a call. I look forward to hearing from you and promise we will have fun!

Jan C

MURDER MYSTERY AT BETHEL HALL ON FRIDAY, 23rd SEPTEMBER

This is a one evening only event and places are therefore limited. John D is now taking orders for tickets, which are £10 per person, which includes a two course meal and tea or coffee.

Dietary requirements can be requested at the time of booking the tickets. Once purchased, the ticket holders will become welcome guests at Bethel Hall for 7.30pm on Friday, 23rd September. They will take part in the wedding celebrations of a young couple who were married at Bethel Hall earlier in the day. Therefore all guests will be expected to adhere to a strict dress code, to respect and support the bride and groom. During the evening all guests will be served a two course meal plus tea and coffee. A soft drink will be served on arrival and if guests choose, they may bring additional soft drinks or wine for their own consumption.

All proceeds are for our own church funds.

Jan C

JOURNEYS OF FAITH

FIFTY YEARS AGO

On 4th September, 1966, I was received into membership at Sketty Methodist Church. It was usual in those days for groups of young people to be prepared for membership by the minister. In my case it was Rev Brian Tibbetts. Our preparation classes were held during the summer, in the old vestry. Those received into membership with me were, Elsie O, Margaret H, Roger H, Stephen G, Laura B and Anne T. Only a few of us still live in Swansea. To my knowledge none of that group remains active in any church. That poses interesting questions. Were we “forced” into membership because it was expected of us? Should we have had a series of membership classes and then been left to make up our own minds? Or should we have just been left to drift away from the church? Which is ultimately what seems to have happened. I would be interested to learn of other people’s experiences of becoming members.

CHURCH FAMILY NEWS

IN MEMORY OF TYDWEN

Tydwen passed away on 27th June. She was born on 22nd May 1922 into the Husband family, with three brothers and a sister. They lived in the Uplands and worshipped at Ebenezer Chapel in Swansea, where she met her husband John. They married in September 1953, lived in Cae Bryn Avenue and had one son, Stephen. John died just after their 20th wedding anniversary in 1973, when Stephen was only fourteen. Tydwen was a very private, quiet person, but warm and loving. She will be much missed by all who knew her.

WE REMEMBER ENID

The church was full and overflowing when we met together on 25th July to celebrate and give thanks for the life of Enid P. Understandably, not all funerals have such a sense of joy, but Enid's did. She had left hand-written instructions for most of what we did – with the words, 'Nothing morbid or sad please. Don't be miserable'. So whilst of course we shed a tear because she meant so much to so many, we also smiled at one another and deep within our hearts as we remembered.

Much was said during the funeral, but perhaps the description that stands out most is this: 'Quietly extraordinary', for that is what she was. But we also heard how she was such a wise and loving mother, to Angie and Simon but to others as well; how she touched the lives of many through her teaching; and how she and Myrddin led the way in being so welcoming to so many here in church. Enid and Myrddin were married for 54 years, 365 days, for she died a day before their 55th wedding anniversary. Theirs was a deep and abiding love, rooted in their love of God.

At the end we noted how, at Enid's funeral there was no need for a sermon, for Enid herself was a living sermon, for she showed

God's love in the way she lived her life. We ended with these words: "Enid. We love you. We miss you. We want you to be happy. Go safely. Go dancing. Go running home."

IN MEMORY OF DOUG P

In August we celebrated the life of Doug, who died aged almost ninety two years. Doug was known to his own family and friends, our church family and his neighbours at Maxime Court, as an immaculately dressed gentleman with a lovely sense of humour and a smile to share with everyone. During the service, we learned of his life in the RAF during the war. Then of his life in Swansea with his wife Joan, where he was a teacher and later a wholesale stationer. We were reminded that one of Doug's real delights was good food and wine. Indeed, in his later years he became a local "Trip Advisor" for his friends, delivering his verdicts with his dry sense of humour. Leslie ended the service with the words, "We say goodbye with love in our hearts. Doug, may you now rest in peace and rise in glory."

IN MEMORY OF JANICE B

It is with sadness that we report the death of Janice Burse. Janice had been attending our church for the last three to four years, after she was unable to get to Parklands Evangelical Church. We soon grew to appreciate her deep faith, sense of fun and American accent! Janice grew up in Chicago, but for most of her working life held a key role working for the mission radio station TWR. This saw her living in various places around the world, before retiring to Swansea. In the last couple of years, her health had not been so good as she battled with cancer. However she still maintained her sense of hope, that was always founded in her faith. She died in Morrision Hospital on 13th August; but this is not a reason for sadness, for in her own words, 'I am going to see Jesus'.

MANY THANKS FROM BERYL

I would like to thank my friends in Uniting Church Sketty and Wesley Club, for all the cards and flowers received when my husband Ken died. They were all very much appreciated. Thank you all.

Beryl R

A HUGE BIG THANK YOU FROM ALAN AND LINDA J

Alan and Linda would like to thank all those who attended their celebration coffee morning on 6th August. It made the occasion very special. They also wish to thank everyone for their cards, good wishes and beautiful flower arrangement. Our golden couple wish also to convey the following message.

“Our special thanks must go to Wanda's Wonderful Wedding Planners, for the decoration of the hall on the day before. Wanda's Wonderful Wedding Planners, will also be in action before the Madcaps Murder Mystery on 23rd September. How blessed we feel to be part of such a wonderful, caring, friendly church.”

Love,

Linda and Alan

A HUGE BIG THANK YOU FROM GWEN AND JOHN

THANK YOU for all the messages, cards, phone calls, visits and offers of help we received during Gwen's enforced 'rest' following a short spell in hospital; it was lovely to know everyone was thinking of us and very much appreciated.

Gwen and John D
