From the Manse

Dear Friends,

You probably all know by now that if I could design my favourite balanced diet, it would be a chocolate bar in each hand.... Sadly even I know that this isn't very balanced!

Balance seems to be a bit of an 'on-trend' topic. My sister and I are in the process of arranging a special spa day for us and our Mum to celebrate her 80th birthday, and I've been struck by how many of the spa treatments say something about 'balance' in their blurb (often in the context of chackras, chi etc – not that I'm all that sure what these things mean!).

We need balance in our church and spiritual life too. We need a balance between service to others (and therefore service to God), worship, deepening our discipleship and simply 'fun'.

We do some of these quite well, it seems to me. I'm so delighted that over 35 people from our church volunteered (in different ways) on the night shelter this year, which I think we all found both meaningful and enjoyable, as did our guests.

The rehearsals for the pantomime have been in full swing, and we look forward to watching or acting in the specially written church panto 'The Coastal Path'.

And of course there are our usual weekly or monthly activities – Wesley Club, Thursday Circle, Folk Dancing, Keep Fit, Reel to Real, Cover to Cover and our two house groups

All of these things are good – but I want to encourage us all in the one thing that is perhaps less well attended than I would like, and that is our Faith and Fellowship sessions. It is in these sessions, out of all the things that we do in church, that we consciously deepen our 'learning' of God in Christ.

It's true that around 25 people usually attend either the Tuesday morning or Thursday evening sessions, and in some ways this is good. But I estimate that this is only around one quarter of the people in our congregation who could attend.

Now of course there are many reasons for this – many will have other commitments at the times in which we meet. But maybe there are others of you reading this now, who have never been to such a group, for whatever reason. Or maybe you've attended in the past and life has simply got too busy.

I understand – I really do. But I want to challenge you. We cannot get all we need to learn of God from our worship on a Sunday. We need opportunities in which together we can ask questions and go deeper.

My experience here in Uniting Church Sketty is that the sessions are enjoyable and fun, as well as challenging and meaningful. This is not down to me, but to the regular attenders who bring their sense of humour, wondering questions and meaningful insights.

So, perhaps this coming Lent, you will dare to give it a go – and bring a balance to your life that may not have been there before. Details are not yet fully formed, but look out for information in the weekly notices and in the March magazine.

With best wishes,

Leslie

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICE

Wednesday 1st March at 2pm

Reflect
Remember
Repent

All our welcome to this quiet
and reflective service.

SAFEGUARDING TRAINING

Safeguarding training will take place in our church on:
Tuesday 14 February at 10am
Thursday 16 February at 7pm

We all know how important it is for us to be aware of what to look out for when, in whatever way, we have care of children, young people and vulnerable adults. As a church it is vital that we are a safe and welcoming space. All those who need to attend should have received this information already, but if you haven't, and you think you should, please contact Maggie Crawford our Safeguarding Coordinator or Leslie.

SWANSEA NIGHT SHELTER

I would personally like to thank all those who volunteered in various ways at the night shelter, which we held on all four Saturdays in January. Some people interacted with the guests, some cooked, some opened up for bedding, some shopped – but all was done with grace, reliability and good humour. All went very smoothly and we enjoyed getting to know the guests. It's a reminder that any of us, through misfortune, could be in their place.

And in addition, a huge thank you to Dilly's who at very minimal cost, made a wholesome and yummy beef casserole each week which was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests and volunteers alike.

THE LEADERSHIP TEAM: WHAT DO THEY DO?

The Leadership Team comprises all Serving Elders and Stewards. The role of the Leadership Team is to help the minister to lead the church and manage its day to day running; but it does not make decisions about major issues. We meet approximately every six weeks and discuss any matters which require a quick response, e.g. who can steward for a forthcoming funeral or special service, updates regarding immediate or ongoing issues such as the recent visit from members of the Mosque and dates of forthcoming special services.

Safeguarding is always on the agenda to keep this in the forefront of our minds, but recently because the Leadership Team, together with other Church members, will need to complete refresher training in the near future. However, issues which are more significant will be discussed, but will then be referred to the Church/Trustees meeting, because such fundamental issues need the views of a wider group of Church members and decision by them. For example, at the last Church/Trustee meeting there was a discussion on the purpose of our church and how we should be using our building. Leadership Team will have views, but it is not their role to make decisions of this kind. Some issues will be referred on to a more appropriate group for example the Events Committee.

We do need to remember that we are all responsible for ensuring that anything we feel needs discussion and possible action, is passed on to the Leadership Team so that it can be dealt with appropriately. Future meetings of the Leadership Team will be flagged up in the Church notices.

The next meeting is on February 28th 2017, so do please refer any concerns, ideas or problems by informing one of the Elders or Stewards so that, if appropriate, it can go on the next agenda.

POSTCARDS TO PRISONERS OF CONSCIENCE

One of the options in the last Breakout Sunday was to write postcards to prisoners of conscience, as well as to representatives of their governments to show our concern for their plight. Noel began with Bible Study which gave relevance to our activity. Pat provided postcards of local scenes and background information and photos of prisoners. She also supplied cards, envelopes and addresses of embassies.

The very next day, on the radio, a former prisoner of conscience who had been unexpectedly released, spoke about her experience. People from around the world had sent her Christmas cards. She never received them, but they demonstrated to her captors that there was great sympathy for her cause and therefore they should set her free. This was further proof that such efforts are worthwhile.

CRAFT GROUP AND BUILD AFRICA

Craft group members pay a small sub each week to provide materials and threads for our projects. As we had a surplus in the kitty, we decided to make a donation to a charity. We specifically wanted something linked to education and this became the criteria of our search for a suitable benefactor. After much research and with the help of a Radio 4 Appeal, we decided that Build Africa would fit the bill. This was set up in 1978 as part of International Christian Relief, later becoming Build Africa.

Build Africa is a charity which believes in the power of education to help end poverty. Often working with vulnerable children, it provides the right infrastructure, resources, quality teaching and parental support, to encourage them to get the most from their time at school.

We were able to send a cheque for £150 to the appeal and a certificate is on the church notice board.

THE SWANSEA & GOWER TALKING MAGAZINE

The S&GTM much appreciates being granted permission to use the church office to process our wallets, but who is the Magazine for? It is for blind and partially sighted people and is based on items from the Evening Post in the preceding month, and includes other information of interest, such as the excellent social groups organised by the local branch of RNIB. We have also recorded many Local History books which are available on Memory Sticks. If you, or anyone you know, would like to receive this service, please contact the Hon.Secretary, Jean K.

CELEBRATIONS IN 2017

2017 is a special year in the life of the United Reformed Church, which came into being 45 years ago in 1972, through the union of the Presbyterian Church of England and the majority of the churches in the Congregational Church in England and Wales. In 1981 we joined with the Reformed Association of the Churches of Christ and in 2000 with the Congregational Union of Scotland. Seeking unity and being ecumenical is second nature to the United Reformed Church, as shown in the strong relationships with the churches and Christian organisations around the globe, including the Council for World Mission, World Communion of Reformed Churches and the World Council of Churches.

During this year, we also celebrate 500 years since the Lutheran Reformation and 100 years since the ordination of Constance Coltman, the first woman to enter Congregational ministry. It will also be 25 years since Commitment for Life began and 50 years since Pilots started.

There will be more about some of these special celebrations to follow.

COMMUNION COLLECTIONS IN FEBRUARY

Our collections for February will be for Share Tawe, which is a Swansea based charity set up to help asylum seekers. They try to match up local hosts with suitable asylum-seeking guests who stay from 3 nights to 11 months. On an average night, 8-9 people need shelter and the charity has found that the number of destitute people needing support has increased.

My sky dive is fast approaching, 26thFebruary 2017. I would like to thank all those who have sponsored me. The total to date, without adding gift aid, is £1,330, so many thanks.
